1. Financial update/Treasurer's Report: current cash on hand total is $7815.31. Edie is setting up a square account for use with ticket sales, fundraisers, etc.
2. Fall Musical - Freaky Friday update: ticket orders are rolling in - 130 sold so far. Tickets onsite will be sold at the door in the lobby/atrium with separate table to collect presold tickets and hand out programs. Everything will be done in the lobby. There will be ushers for seating guidance, crowd control, and enforcement of mask wearing and seat spacing. Delilah S. will be in charge of the ushers. The promo video is currently being worked on and costumes are coming together. Clear masks have been ordered - each student must keep track of their own mask. T-shirts are black and have been ordered and will be given out on dress rehearsal night.
3. One Acts: applications are posted on the website and student directors are needed.
4. SPAN: Gina is working on their promo video with the students. Stephanie provided details - the director of SPAN will give a 2 minute speech summarizing their mission statement and show their location. There was discussion about collecting food in tubs outside of the school as we are not permitted to collect inside the school building. There will be theme days for tech week and food collection theme will coordinate.
5. RNR XXXIII: applications for student directors will be posted on the website and flyers will be posted in classrooms about auditions.
6. COVID restrictions: Angie is meeting with Dr. Jones to discuss parity with sports and with drama and music in other AACPS schools - seating, attendance capacity, etc.
